Warm weather brings spring sports

At the State Track meet in Williamsburg, Dick Beasely set a record of 19:9 for the 180 yard low hurdles.

Track again proved to be one of the most powerful sports at Jefferson. Under the coaching of Howard Light and Charles Tucker, the thinclads stormed to a 6-1 record in regular season competition, winning the 1960 City-County meet. The only defeat came at the hands of E. C. Glass. This year's team consisted of many fine performers with impressive records. Roy Nelson placed fifth in the State meet setting a high school record in the high hurdles at 14:9 seconds. Johnny Edwards, undefeated in regular competition, set a Western District record of 12'6" in the pole vault, and placed fifth in the State meet. Dick Beasely placed third in the State meet setting a school record of 19:9 seconds.

Howard Light has proven himself as good a coach as he was a runner for Jefferson from 1951-1954.

Jerry Wilson (right) explains the reasons for the only loss of the regular season to Coach Howard Light and Roy Nelson.

A long fly to center....

The leadoff hitter for Danville grounds to deep short. The Magician catcher is Lane "Yogi" Craig. The Umpire is Cassell.

The baseball team proved to be one of the best in school history by compiling an 8-2 mark in district play, and a 10-4 mark over all. The team had a fine pitching staff and showed much power at the plate in posting this fine season's showing. Much credit must be given to Coach Byrd, who has built a strong team in a short time. The team won the Group I Western District title for the second straight year. Coach Byrd, even though he will lose several senior stars, should have a good team next year.

Mr. Byrd checks the batting order with scorer Jerry Dillon as Manager Mike Creasy watches.

Tommy Rogers crosses the bag after grounding into a first-inning double play against E. C. Glass.

The side is Retired...

Jefferson's fast infielders were (First Row) Lane Craig, Tom Rogers, Grover Flint, Dick Mayo. (Second Row) Skip Salmon, Jerry Payne, Jim Slead, Jack Gregory, Danny Hogan.

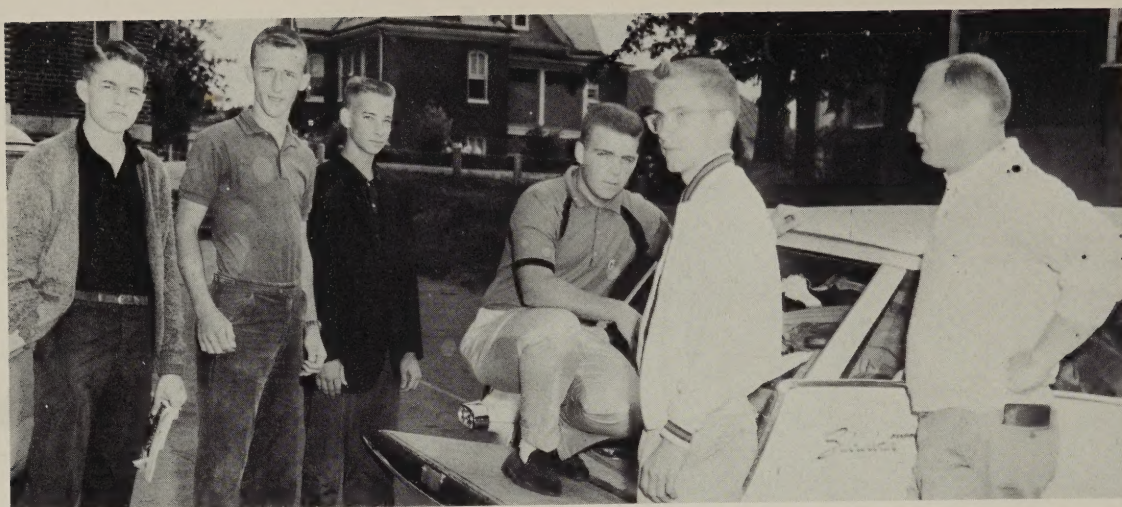

Jefferson's four long armed outfielders were Eugene "Twitch" Angle, Lacy "Dimples" Edwards, Jimmy Fields, and Wayne Ferguson.

The golf team, coached by Mr. Alexander, and the tennis team, coached by Mr. Graybill, both compiled fine records in both District and State play. Our golf team finished seventh in the State Meet, with Jefferson's number one man, Robbie Horak, finishing second in individual play. The tennis team achieved a well earned 7-2 record for the season, thus showing much promise, since several of the players are underclassmen.

Long Putts - Backhand Volleys.

Backstage, Mr. Byrd, right, selects "her" jewelry with the help of Mrs. Stone, while Nancy Seeley, left, adds just one more bracelet. These members of the cast are preparing for the all male wedding.

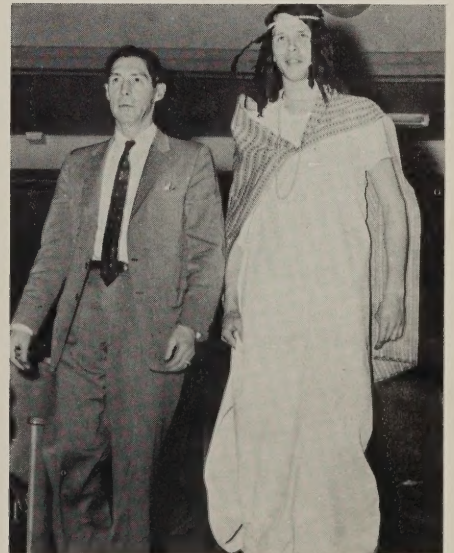

Attendants and entertainers of the court stand at attention before the Egyptian Pharaoh, Mr. Emmons.

"Satori", the Egyptian name for awakening, was the name of this year's Student Cooperative Association Spring Project. Every spring the SCA presents a combination talent show-play as a money raising project. The theme was a burlesque on Bridie Murphy. Bridie "Burphy", played by the Martin twins recalls her past life out West, in Rome, and at the Pharaoh's court in Egypt centuries ago. Money raised will support next year's activities.

SCA presents "Satori"

Jeffites, as always, do their best

Mr. White awards checks and medals to Becky Perdue, center, and Louise Drewry who tied for first place in the Modern Language Tournament in third year French, both in the state and eastern United States.

The prodigious wife, played by Sandra Cooke, does not recognize her husband, the Shoemaker, played by Garland Grammer, when he at last returns to her.

The Shoemaker's Prodigious Wife was this year's entry in the University of Virginia Drama Festival. In the picture above, village gossips, Diane Caldwell, Elva Bass, Mary Ellen Buchanan, Margaret Platt, Sarah Wilmore, Robin Ostrov, Lynn Davidow, and Carolyn Thomas, taunt the Shoemaker's young and beautiful bride, played by Sandy Cooke, center.

This has been an exceptionally good year in Forensic activities. In addition to honors in drama we took first place in the Western District in both Boys' and Girls' Public Speaking, and Poetry Reading; second place in Girls' Prose Reading, and Spelling. In Group I state competition, we won first in Girls' and Boys' Public Speaking and second in Poetry Reading.

Ronald McDowell, Don Lucas, Virginia Hill, and Elaine Hill proudly march through the Jefferson Ring.

Senior Day — the twenty-second Jefferson Senior Day—but the first one (and last) for us —Assembly, reading of the Will, Prophecy, Class Poem, presentation of the Mirror, and the traditional walk through the giant ring—then all-day picnic at Lakeside. The following night, the Junior-Senior Prom made our weekend complete. The theme of the Prom was “Remember When.” The Kazim Shrine Temple replaced the school gym, and also for the first time, we danced to the music of the Jefferson Dance Band. Now almost the end! Only exams, Baccalaureate service and Commencement Day!

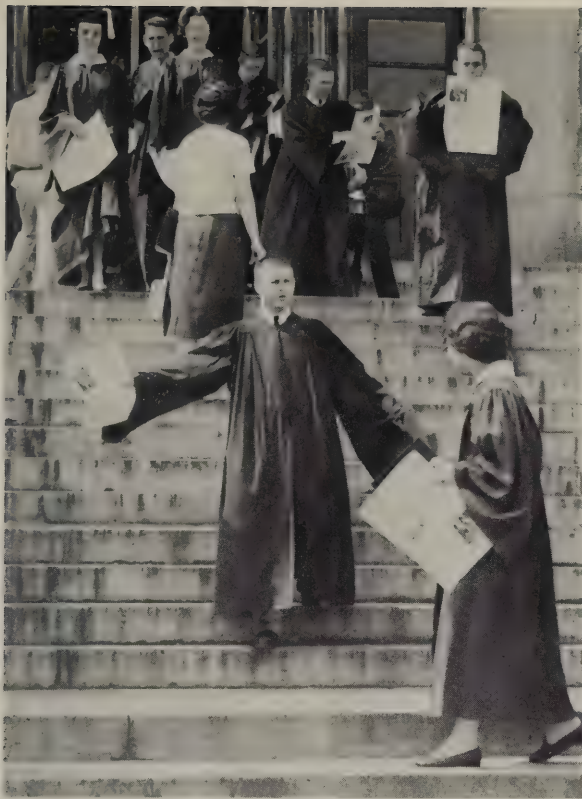

And yes even in Senior Day picnicking

Playing the lead roles in this year's Senior play Lilliom were Cheryn Coller, top, and Tommy Meadow. Cheryn portrayed Julie, and Tommy took the part of Lilliom.

Mr. Buck Via, Dr. E. R. Rushton, Superintendent of Schools; and Mr. Harold Secord, Principal of Jefferson, watch the swimmers.

The last issue of the "Jefferson News"! Jimmy Dean exclaims, "I never thought I'd see this day," and other Seniors search for their names in the Class Prophecy and Will.

Nancy Kingery, Dick Mayo, Bonnie Haynes, and Richard Henning take a ride on the Ferris Wheel.

George Shute and Ronny Jackson do a pantomime to the record "Bermuda Shorts" in the floor show at the Junior-Senior Prom.

To Thee, our Alma Mater,
Our hearts will e'er be true,
And so, with lifted voices,
We sing our praise to you.
Still thru thy halls we wander,
Our friend you'll always be,
Forever we'll be faithful,
Dear Jefferson, to thee.

In Automotive Mechanics class, Larry Lyle, Gary Baldwin, and John Eakin disassemble an engine.

Lest you think life here is all pep assemblies or Faculty-student basketball games, let us assure you that Jeffites spend many hours in class, home, library, or on the job study. We can receive training in academic, shop, retailing, business, homemaking, athletic, or music subjects, thus preparing ourselves for whatever career we might follow.

Miss Martin, Senior Advisor, goes over their scores from College Board Examinations with Barbara Lee, Roger Simpson, Linda Brenner, and Lave Hurt.

Miss Margaret Martin, Mrs. Ruth Staton and Mr. Howard Emmons rotate the jobs of Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Advisors. We feature Miss Martin, who, as Senior Advisor, has made available great amounts of vocational and educational information to students. Tirelessly she arranged interviews, College Day, and testing programs, wrote innumerable letters of recommendation, and compiled records and statistical data.

The Drama Department presents four plays a year—a Fall and a Spring play, a Christmas play, and one which is entered in the One-Act Play Drama Festival. "What a Life", a story of high school life is centered around the character of Henry Aldrich.

our friend you'll always be,

This year Tove Effelsen from Norway and Risto Lausa from Finland have been students at George Washington in Danville. In February, they spoke for a Jefferson assembly program and visited classes. The picture at right shows Tove Effelsen, escorted by Richard Bushong, Prefect member, being introduced to students between class periods.

Members of the cast of "What a Life" pose below for a formal picture. They include T. O'Neil, M. E. Buchanan, A. Kavanaugh, G. Grammer, F. Shelton, R. Price, L. Hurt, M. Thomas, D. White, J. Craig.

Forever we'll be faithful

We consider it an honor to represent Jefferson to others—as members of a literary or athletic team; choir, band, string ensemble or dance band; club convention or field trip group. One of the greatest of honors is to be elected Madonna, or President of an organization, or editor or queen.

Rain ruined our original plans for Homecoming. But the postponement only gave Jeffites longer to work on the Pre-game Ceremonies and Parade. Verlyn Simmons, above, was crowned Homecoming Queen. Her Junior Attendant was JoAnn Floyd, and Mary Ann Lancaster was elected Sophomore Attendant.

One very impressive service is the Hi-Y Induction, held each year at the Second Presbyterian Church.

Jefferson. It's hard to believe that we will be senior next year. Well! I hope we will always remain good friends. If ever you need anything, just call me. Stay as you are now.

We are conscious of the fact that at school we study and learn basic subject matter. Without realizing it, we widen our spiritual horizons when we applaud good sportsmanship, honestly do the best we can, and appreciate the efforts of others. Each day in Home Room period we affirm our faith when we pray and pledge allegiance to the flag. Some school organizations are designed primarily as character-building groups—such as Y-Teens, Hi-Y, the Bible Club, and the Voice of Christian Youth. We learn moral value through observations, and through increased understanding which comes with maturity.

Becka Quinn, Gwen Coleman, Harriet Williams, and other students take advantage of the rare opportunity for a snow battle.

To Jefferson, the biggest school we had ever known, we came as strangers. Sophomores spend the first year getting to know each other, getting acquainted with new subjects and new teachers. Juniors, with that feeling of newness now passed, settle down to accomplish the wonders long dreamed of. Seniors, old friends now, are themselves surprised at the feeling of closeness that springs up, within so large a group. The only sad thing about graduation is the going away, friend from friend. This loss is keenly felt when seniors sing for the last time together—"Dear Jefferson to thee . . .".

All students eagerly await lunch time at Jefferson. Our lunch schedule is divided into seven periods and those on the last shifts get really hungry. Pocketbooks appear to be the main course at this table.

Pepper.

Best of luck to a real sweet girl. Hope you pass all your tests. Love you!

The Seniors above are unable to suppress their excitement over the arrival of Graduation caps and gowns, and therefore try them on immediately. Steve Hodges,

This is Jefferson—your school and mine. This is the place where we study, dream of the future, learn good sportsmanship and team unity, where we develop our various talents, swear eternal friendship, develop spiritually, and learn to appreciate the world into which we are moving as adults.

JEFFITES ARE GRATEFUL

Assistant Principal; and Mr. Harold L. Secord, Principal.

The most important people at Jefferson are its students—this year 1755 of them; 685 Sophomores, 566 Juniors, and 504 Seniors. Provided by the School Board to help them are the Principal, the Assistant Principal, the Director of Student Activities and their staffs; the faculty; the cafeteria ladies; and the custodial staff.

Mr. Harold M. Secord, Principal, and Mr. J. R. White, Assistant Principal, have the joint responsibility of determining and executing policy and regulations, of establishing the curriculum and assignment of students and teachers, and of representing Jefferson to parents and the public in general.

Their assistants, Miss Edna Chesney, Mrs. Una White, Miss Barbara Grasser, do all the surface things that we notice—such as answering the phone and sending us the thousands of messages for mothers and employers, preparing the home-room notices and absentee lists. In addition, they do the things we do not see or appreciate (until later, when we apply for college entrance or a job) such as, keep all high school academic records (indelible ones of our successes and failures), write transcripts and recommendations for colleges and jobs.

In the Activities Office, Mr. Sizer and Mrs. Foley are our business and financial wizards.

All student transactions go through their hands, accounts and audits, payments for class dues, for publications, for tickets of every kind; arrangements for all team and field trips; all book issues; all visual aids; all school supplies. We often say Mrs. Foley removes every cent we have from pocket or billfold—and to cap it all, she even takes the Blue Horse from each packet of notebook or typing paper.

Checking the files for a change in an address, Miss Graesar keeps the student cumulative record cards up to date.

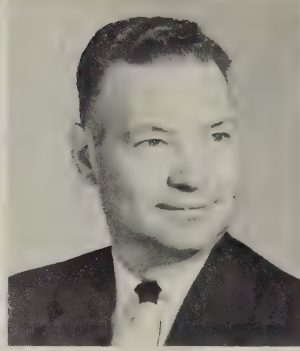

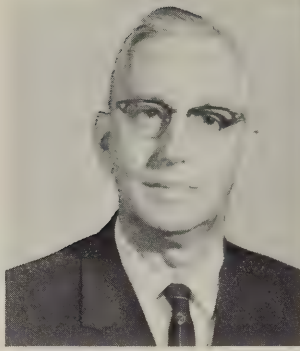

In the Activities Office, Mrs. Foley records the expenditures for all school and extra-curricular activities, including sports events, trips, publications, text books, films, and the everyday expenses of a school.

Preparing Guidance information which will aid Jefferson students are Mr. Howard Emmons, Mrs. Ruth Staton, and Miss Margaret Martin, Junior, Sophomore, and Senior counselors, respectively. Standing, is Mr. James Bishop, head of the Guidance Department.

Guidance

The long-range ambition of the Guidance Department is to help each individual prepare himself for his place in adult life. More immediately, the Department helps the student adjust to the school curriculum and the activities of his teen-age years . . . to find the specific abilities and skills which he possesses. It provides important occupation and education information, and encourages each student in making his vocational and training choices.

ALWAYS TO HELP US...

DEDICATION

As head of the Guidance Department Mr. Bishop talks with students about colleges, test scores, and many other things. Here he is talking with Edward Keller about the National Merit Scholarship Examination scores.

In appreciation for your contributions to our school life, your guidance and influence in our development, the staff of the 1960 ACORN wishes to dedicate this year's Book to you

You have always been willing to help us and ready to cooperate with us. You are a constant source of inspiration and encouragement to the students of Jefferson.

Before Senior Home Room is called to order, Officers of the Senior Class talk over the activities of the morning. This year the Officers are left to right: Vice President, Bobby Doriot; Secretary, Glen Garland; Chief Advisor, Mr. Lewis C. Pitzer, Jr.; Treasurer, Sharon Bieler; President, Steve Hodges.

SENIORS

For Seniors this is the biggest year. June 10, Graduation, marks the end of one goal and the beginning of another. For some it means college and for others it is a step into military service or the business world. As we look back into the past we will always remember our years at Jefferson full of hard work, good times, triumphs and, yes, a few tears.

Seniors not pictured in the Yearbook are Clifton Peyton Alcorn, Jack Montgomery Cummings, Leray Hopkins Dillon, Bobby Wayne Henley, Larry Gordon Lyle, Mich-

Organizations

Prefect Members Peter Munger, Danny Hogan, Steve Hodges are making a final check before the Student Directory copy goes to press.

Encouraging participation in school affairs and promoting student activities are two of the functions of Student Cooperative Association at Jefferson. The S.C.A. is a great force in training youth for the time when they must take their respective places in the world. Through this group, students, by working together, are given an actual part in the government of the school. They gain a better understanding of themselves and American democratic procedures.

As usual the Student Government has centered its activities around school life. They have worked with an orientation program for new students, organized the sponsoring of a Foreign Exchange Student, prepared and given out Student Directories, presented the annual Snow Queen Dance at Christmas, and a Spring Project.

Representatives from Jefferson attended the S.A.S.C. Convention in Corpus Christi, Texas this winter, and acquired many new ideas. Jefferson had the honor of being elected Parliamentarian for the 1960 Convention.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT SERVES

Prefect Members Jeanne Umberger, Joyce Creasy, Judy Brewer, and Alta Stricklin launch Commandment Week by hanging a mobile.

Hanging fire exit signs throughout the building are Prefect members Gynetha Coxwell, Margaret Kurshan, Recording Secretary; Tommy Holcomb, Patty Martin, Johnny Edwards, and Mary Stone Copenhaver.

THROUGH VERB BLANKS, READING CONVERSATION,

L'Echo de Roanoke, French newspaper, is brought out four times a year. Its staff includes Kay Epperson, Reporter; Margaret King, Editor; Bob Mottley, Co-Editor; Mrs. Fallwell, Sponsor; Andrea Becker, Reporter; Becky Perdue, Typist, and Mary Hodges, Business Manager. Jefferson is one of the few schools in the United States to publish three different newspapers in three different languages—English, French, Latin.

Organized for pupils with a special interest in the language, the French Club is designed to acquaint students with French culture and to develop ease in speaking the language. These objectives are attained through regular monthly meetings. Students sponsor a French orphan and correspond with French students during the year. At Christmas there is a party at the home of a member where the group participate in skits and serve refreshments. The yearly spring picnic brings club activities to a close.

AND CONTINUOUS LANGUAGE DRILLING

The Pan American League at Jefferson was given its charter on March 30, 1943. "Los Amigos Unidos" is the name of our chapter. The League is an international organization, a part of the Pan American Union of twenty-one American nations.

The purpose of the P.A.L. is the active furtherance of Inter-American understanding to the end of promoting a hemispheric spirit.

The Pan American League has 105 members. The annual fall picnic was held at Fishburn Park where everyone enjoyed games, hot dogs, and singing. The tradition Christmas Party was held in the cafeteria with the breaking of the pinata.

This year's officers are President Tommy Meadow, Vice-President Diane Duncan, Secretary Carol Morris, and Treasurer Joan Falkenstein.

WE LEARN

The second year of study consists of a review of first year grammar and a study of Caesar's Commentaries on the Gallic War. The third and fourth year students study either Cicero's orations or Vergil's Aeneid and selections from the work of other poets of that era. The studies of Cicero and Vergil alternate year to year.

SPEECH AND CULTURE OF OTHER PEOPLES,

The torch of learning against a background of laurel leaves is the symbol of the Junior Classical League and is shown in sterling silver as the pin of the organization. This is suggestive of the purpose of the club to foster and pass on the love of the classics. Meetings are held the last Tuesday of each month and programs of songs, skits, talks, or slides in Latin are scheduled.

One project of the club is the publication of the "Roanoke Roman" printed twice a year. About forty percent of all students enrolled in Latin are members of the Jefferson Chapter of the National Junior Classical League.

WHILE AT JEFFERSON

The Future Business Leaders of America, an organization for business students in high school and college, helps to improve business education through classes, school, and community relationships. Members profit from a well-balanced program of activities such as panel discussions, spelling bees, employer-employee banquets, regional and state conferences and summer workshops. Virginia is divided into five F.B.L.A. regions, each centered around a state college—Radford for this region. Business employers find a valuable source of recruitment in the F.B.L.A.

Looking over their 1959 F.B.L.A. exhibit, which took a Second Place National Award at the state conference are seated, Jenny White, Historian; and Judy Miller. Standing: Elaine Hill, State Recording Secretary; and Verlyne Simmons, State F.B.L.A. President.

Joyce Schlotthober arranges a jewelry display to attract Valentine's Day shoppers.

The purpose of Distributive Education is to give the student a chance to gain valuable experience in an actual retail, wholesale, or service occupation. He not only receives on-the-job training, but spends an hour in the classroom each day, learning the different phases of distribution. This information is applied to his own job.

D. E. students all belong to the Distributive Education Clubs of America. Each D. E. Club enters students in a district competition which includes contests of merchandise presentation, window display judging, sales demonstration, essays, and student of the year. Winners compete with others in the State and Nation.

The D. E. Club winds up its social functions for the year with Employer-Employee Banquet. Appreciation is expressed to the employers for their help, guidance and understanding throughout the school year.

LOOKING AHEAD.

F.H.A. officers: Parliamentarian, Mary Glenn Falls; Vice-President, LaVerne Jett; President, Patty Pratt; Song Leader, Virginia Hall; and Treasurer, Betty Haff.

In 1944 the Future Homemakers of America Club was organized at Jefferson. To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking has been the goal of its members.

Among activities for the year were fixing a Christmas basket for a family, making and selling corsages, earrings, and pins for Christmas. A panel discussion on Teenage Problems was given.

A Christmas party was held at the home of one of the members. In the Spring, the homemakers went to Longwood College to visit the Home Ec. department.

The members of the F.H.A. have worked to achieve their goal. Living by their motto, "Toward New Horizons".

The ACORN MAGAZINE, which is published twice yearly—in the Fall and the Spring—is the literary-arts publication of Jefferson High. The magazine has membership in the Southern Interscholastic Press Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. Last year the Acorn received the highest rating possible—Medalist—in the Columbia competition.

A varied list of contents are presented to the ACORN readers—poems, articles, short stories, impressionisms, features, cinquains, hokkus, and a new section with the Fall 1959 issue, Vignettes.

The balance obtained from the use of equally divided art work and print has brought about this year two of the most attractive ACORN issues we have ever published.

TO INVOKE MEMORIES

Staff members Kay Epperson, Brenda Becker, and Gwen Coleman sort pictures for the Honors pages.

Since August the Yearbook Staff has been learning the major facts and minor details of putting together a good yearbook. In October several of our staff attended the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Clinic at Columbia University where our 1959 ACORN received a rating of Excellent.

Many things must be done before the yearbook becomes the finished product most people know. Individual pictures must be taken and identified; all club activities must be written up, and pictures made of them. The honors, assemblies, and sports must be covered. When all is finally finished, the yearbook serves each student as a "book of memories" which will recall all phases of their school year.

Sports Editors Lane Craig, and Billy Edwards look on as C. T. Tucker and Don Bartol examine the only Varsity Football jersey remaining in the equipment room.

A DAY BY DAY ACCOUNT

Sports Editors are Robert Norcross and Mike Smith.

The "Jefferson News" Staff meets daily in order to publish seventeen issues of the newspaper a year. The complete planning cycle for each issue therefore falls into overlapping two-week periods. In little more than a week, assignments must be given out and completed, pages made up, and the entire issue sent to Press. During the following week, plans for the next issue are made, and the staff proofreads the paper already at the print shop. By Friday of the second week, the staff is ready to proudly distribute their finished product and begin again on the latest news. Seventy-five to a hundred exchange papers are sent to High Schools throughout the United States.

Staff members are Barbara Fuller, Cookie Nininger, Sharon Bieler, Vickie Reid, and Ellender Martin. Standing is Cartoonist Fred Harris.

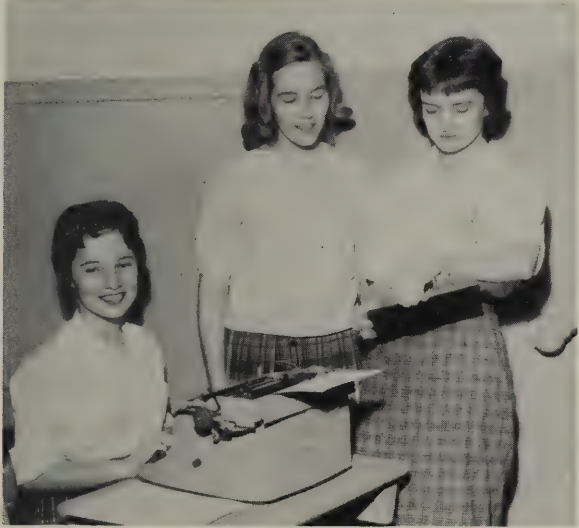

Business Manager is Virginia Hill.

WE HONOR SCHOLARSHIP AND ACHIEVEMENT

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society was started to stimulate an interest in Scholarship in the Secondary Schools of the country. Its purpose is to recognize Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship in the students of the high schools, and in doing so, to try to inspire all members of the high schools to try to attain those attributes and those elements of high standing.

AND SPIRITUAL VALUES

Through a knowledge of Bible history obtained in Bible class and in the Bible Club, the student obtains an understanding of the development of Christianity. In the Fall, greater emphasis is given to the old Testament, highlighted by trips to the Temple for services and study with Rabbi Shillman. In the spring, the Life of Christ, establishment of the first church, lives of the disciples, and the missionary journeys are discussed. Pupils successfully completing the year's course are awarded a blue-seal certificate indicating that they are qualified to teach in Bible Schools.

WE LIKE FOURTH PERIOD MUSIC EVERY DAY,

The members of the Jefferson Senior High School Choir have had a very time-consuming but profitable and interesting year. The Christmas season was an especially busy time for the choir. Programs were presented for the Kiwanis Club, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Service for the Lighting of the Candle on the Court House Lawn, and also presentations for radio and television. Soon after Christmas, extra rehearsals were called to practice for the annual Spring Concert and Spring Tour. Along with all this work, the choir found time for parties, bake sales and selling cards and candy. The money made from the articles sold was placed in a fund for the Choir Trip. This year the choir visited Fayetteville, North Carolina; Charleston, South Carolina; Atlanta, Georgia; and Pembroke College. As usual, this was a memorable trip. The last important activity of the choir was participating in the Baccalaureate and Commencement Exercises. Celebrating the end of school, members had a wonderful time at a final swimming party.

GOOD IDEAS FOR DECORATING

The Art Club is one of the service clubs at Jefferson. Every play, assembly, parade, and exhibit is backed by the skill and willingness of the Art Department. For the first time, the Art Club has kept a continuous Art Exhibition mounted in the front hall. Active members give freely of their skill in helping with the sets for plays and assemblies. An original float was entered in the Homecoming Parade. The Art Club takes the lead in creating the spirit of Christmas by decorating the front hall and erecting the Santa cut-out, a past product of the department, on the front of the school. Varied programs, including the histories of famous artists and field trips to visit exhibits at the Public Library give all members an opportunity to obtain knowledge as well as enjoyment.

Using the theme of Jack Frost, the Art Club made a colorful appearance in the annual Homecoming Parade. Working on the float are (Seated) Z. Pentecost, F. Harris, K. Bullington, S. Akers, P. Whittaker, (Standing) L. Frazier, S. Matthews, S. Bivens, P. Brown, C. Robertson, C. Thurman, P. McCall, S. Beard, C. Logan.

BRINGING HOME "DISTINGUISHED" RATING!

The Masquers and Thespians worked in cooperation with classes in Dramatics and Director of Dramatics in the production of the fall Play, "What a Life"; the "Chimes", our annual Christmas Assembly; the production of a one act play, "The Shoemaker's Prodigious Wife", for the District Play Festival and the presentation of the Senior Play.

The Masquers are an apprentice group preparing for membership in the Thespians. Membership in both organizations is open to all students who do work of merit and/or show genuine interest in the school dramatics program.

Masquers: (First Row) B. Leonard, M. Rachal, M. Platt, V. Ilieff, P. McDowell, L. O'Bryan, G. Lanz. (Second Row) M. Alvis, S. Wilmore, C. Mayhew, K. Downs, C. Wood, G. Grossman, M. Lieberman, S. Thompson, S. Kavanaugh, A. Kavanaugh, D. Caldwell, F. Nelson, R. Ostrov, M. Kursham, J. Ostwald,

STRIKING HALF-TIME SHOWS

FEATURE LIVELY MUSIC

The newly organized Dance Band has played at several dances and has become popular in a short time. Members are (First Row) Danny Felty, Billy Overstreet, Derek James, Gus Dearman, Gordon Brown, Bobby

This year, as usual, the Band has been very active. The full Band has made thirty-six appearances; in addition, select groups have appeared an additional twenty-two times.

The Band's innovation this season was the presentation of a Coffee Concert. The program included light music and featured the Dance Band. Cokes, coffee, and cookies were served by the Magicianettes during the concert.

The Magicianettes have become a great asset. They not only "beautify" the Band during parades, football games, rallies, and the Spring Band Show, but they also serve as ushers and hostesses.

The most exciting Band event of the year was the trip to Florida to participate in the New Year's Day Gator Bowl Parade and pre-game ceremonies at Jacksonville.

The Band Staff makes and enforces band regulations. Members include Danny Felty, Student Conductor; Bobby Spiers, Information Advisor; Doug Lucas, Personnel Manager; Jimmy Korte, Special Affairs Chairman; Don Lucas, Program Chairman; (not pictured) Jimmy Mundy, Property Manager; Lorenzo Moore, Transportation Manager.

The Magicianettes perform with the band at football games and parades. Members are Sandra Creig, Phyllis Grasty, Patsy Dove, Carolyn Anderson, Bonnie Leonard, Melanie Wilkes, Nancy Kingery, Mary Anna Hunt, Cookie Nininger, Judy Smith, Carol Hamlett, Sharon Sarver, Rosiland Harris, Sharon Wahl, Bobby Wright, Judy Woodyard, Ann Stevenson, Cletta Deyerle, Nonie Corvin, Beverly Mitchell. In the center are Head Magicianettes Melinda Charlton and Elaine Hill.

"1, 2, 3, 4—class halt!" rings clearly through the gym and the exercises seem endless.

Promoting sportsmanship and providing activities for girls who are interested in athletics are the purposes of the Girls' Athletic Association. To become a member one must have earned 100 athletic points while at Jefferson. The GAA sponsored ping-pong, badminton, and shuffleboard tournaments. They also provided officials for the volleyball and basketball intramural games. At Christmas, a party was given at the home of Anne Swartz, and a basket of food was sent to a needy family. Bowling and skating parties were also included in the G.A.A. activities.

Under the direction of Mrs. Betty Jo Patsel modern dancing has become very popular among the girls at Jefferson. Below, J. Stump, J. Smith, S. Pratt, K. Heslep, and D. Thomas strike a modern dance pose.

Lois Obenshain, right, scores in spite of guard Susie Waters. Long hours of practicing paid off in a 5-2 basketball record.

All boys who have earned a letter for participation in a varsity sport are members of the Varsity J Club. The purpose of this organization is to support all varsity sports, and to encourage participation in athletics. This year the J Club sponsored the Pigskin Prom, with Charlotte Thomas reigning as queen. Mr. Tucker sponsored the club, and plans were made for bringing the J Club back into more active participation in school activities.

LETTERMEN PROMOTE SPORTSMANSHIP

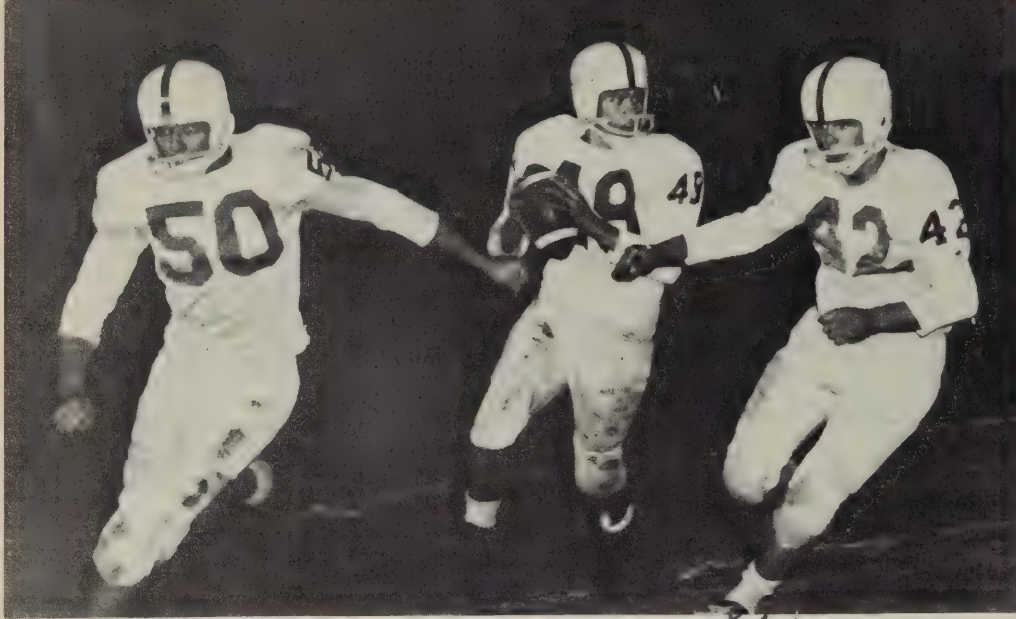

Charlotte Thomas was elected by the 1959 Football Squad to be Queen of the annual J. Club Pigskin Prom. Ann Hubbard and Vickie Reid were her attendants. Below, Charlotte is crowned by Lane Craig.

C. T. Tucker's first year as Head Coach of the Jefferson football squad was a successful one. The 1959 Magicians completed the season sporting a record of seven wins, one loss, and one tie. The wins came at the hands of Saltville, Grundy, Andrew Lewis, arch-rival Fleming, Pulaski, Glass, and G. W. of Danville. The sole loss, to Warwick, was a heart-breaker, because until then our team had been rated a top contender for the State Championship. The tie was a come-from-behind thriller with powerful Dobyns-Bennett of Kingsport, Tenn. The team did win the Western District and City-County races, however; and all eleven nominees from Jefferson were placed on the City-County; six were on Western District, and four were on State honor squads.

A NEW COACH GUIDES A SUCCESSFUL TEAM

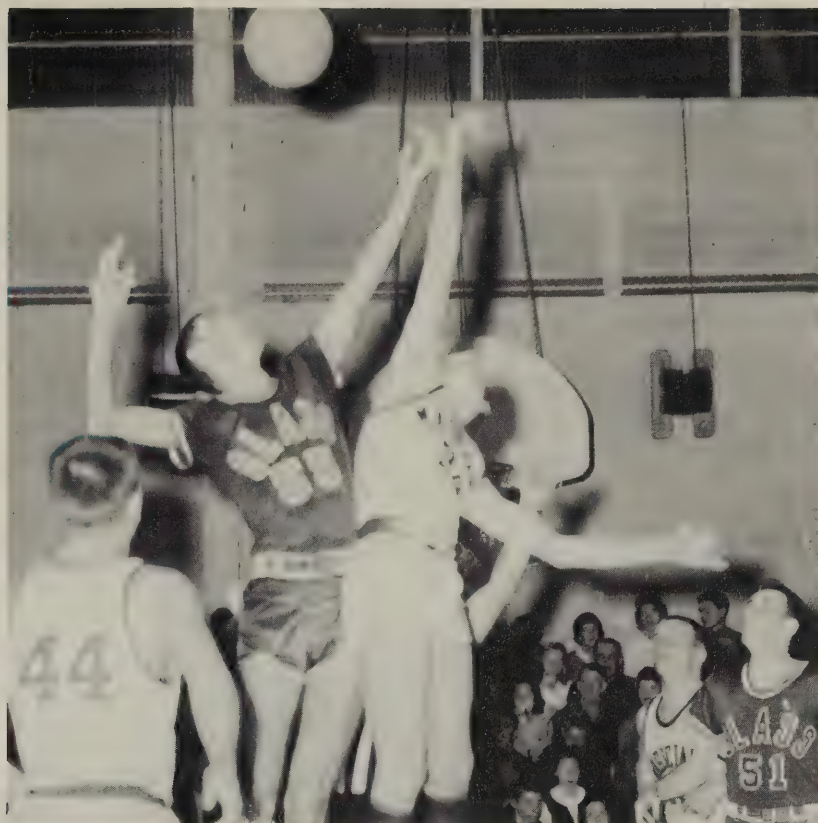

This was C. T. Tucker's first year as head coach at Jefferson. He coached our boys to a very successful season, with the promise of an even better team next year. Mr. Tucker came to us from King George High in the Group I Eastern District. A hard worker himself, he requires players to give every effort toward playing a fair and winning game. We congratulate Mr. Tucker on his 7-1-1 first year showing, and hope he will have many fine seasons in the future at Jefferson High.

NET RIPPING JUMP SHOTS-SWISH...

Mr. Bartol poses with the managers, Jerry "Casey" Dillon, Carl Songer, and Andy Stone.

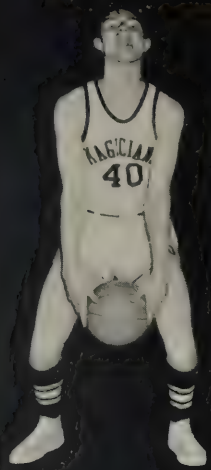

The 1960 Basketball Squad finished with a fair 10-10 record. Our boys gave away a lot of height to most teams but made it up in speed and team effort. Andrew Lewis put us in a bad humor the first game by defeating us 42-31. After that, the team experienced hot and cold spells, sometimes ripping the nets off, and, at others, unable to break an egg. With Steve Baker at 6-4 as our tallest man, we had to depend mostly on outside shooting. The team did make it to the Western District Playoffs, and after an opening loss to Halifax, Jefferson avenged two earlier losses by defeating Andrew Lewis 48-43 in the Consolation Game. With greater height and depth coming on our next couple of seasons promise to be very successful.

With Coach Howard Light in his first year as head coach, the Red Raiders compiled a 3-7-0 record. This year's squad had the toughest schedule a Jefferson wrestling team has ever faced. Much credit goes to several on the team for their outstanding work during the regular season. These are Ronnie Weaver 7-1-1, Richard Dehaven 7-2-0, Butch Robertson 6-4-0, Kenny Garnett 6-2-0 and Bill Stephens 3-3-2. More than half of the team were underclassmen, a fact that gives high hopes for next year's team.

Honors

WE REMEMBER..

THE BEAUTY OF THE CHIMES ASSEMBLY

Mr. Secord congratulates Ceal Lyle who received the 1959 Good Citizenship Award, presented by the Daughters of the American Revolution. This award is given to the student who shows the highest degree of leadership, scholastic achievement, and patriotism.

Each year on the last day of school prior to the Christmas Holidays, the assembly "Why the Chimes Rang" is presented to the students of Jefferson. A scene from the "Chimes" is pictured on pages 140-141. To be selected as the Madonna in the "Chimes" Assembly is one of the highest honors at Jefferson. Pictured below is this year's Madonna, Roslyn Pierce.

Students who were selected to attend Boys' and Girls' State are, seated, R. Bushong, V. Reid, S. Eador, S. Hodges, B. Young, B. Mason, B. Mottley.

Standing are T. Aker, L. Drewry, M. McNeace, R. Barton, N. Royal, K. Callahan, C. Lyle, M. Kurshan, F. Hawkins, R. Horak, and D. James.

Members of this year's Snow Queen Court were, front, K. Epperson, V. Simmons, A. Hubbard, G. Garland. Back, J. Brewer, L. O'Bryan, D. Colbert, Queen, Charlotte Thomas; Maid of Honor, Vickie Reid; and J. Floyd.

Lacy Edwards and Coach C. T. Tucker receive the trophy for Jefferson's 19-0 victory over Fleming from Mr. Noble Marshall of the Chamber of Commerce as the team members look on.

OUR ATHLETES RECEIVING HARD-EARNED HONORS

Bobby Gregory was selected First String Center on the City County, Western District, and All State Football Teams.

V.P.I. fan Lewis Pitzer hides behind the VMI Football jersey presented to him by Coach Don Bartol, who was obviously overjoyed by VPI's bitter loss in the annual Thanksgiving Game.

Substitute cheerleaders R. Weaver, K. Beard, F. Ferguson, K. Garnett, R. Brown, L. Edwards, J. Wilson, and B. Sarver practice before the Grundy game.

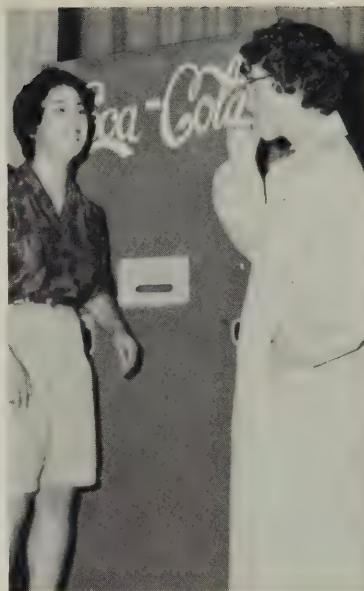

AND ENCOURAGEMENT FROM LOYAL FANS..

Cheerleaders R. Weld, J. Maddox, V. Reid, C. Thomas, A. Hubbard, B. Howard, G. Coleman, and B. Quinn grimace as Pep Band blasts in pep assembly.

A scene from last Spring's Student Government Project "Syzygy" shows Derek James, Lane Craig, Steve Hodges, and Tommy Meadows singing "That Good Ole Mountain Dew."

Ceal Lyle is persuaded by Sharon Bieler to smoke that first weed, assured that no one will ever catch them during fifth period Journalism Class. Who would ever dream that Miss Bentley would be in the halls.

TALENT DISPLAYED IN THE PUBLICATIONS

Tom O'Neill reads his poem "Rave-on" entrancing fellow beatniks.

The Publications Assembly is presented each Fall to promote the sale of Jefferson's Yearbook, Newspaper, and Magazine. It also acquaints the sophomores with life at Jefferson.

Judy Brewer and Sandy Helms pantomime "Honeybun" in recalling the '59 Junior-Senior Prom.

The theme of the Senior Assembly was "Great Lovers Thru the Ages." Tom O'Neill and Sharon Bieler portray Antony and Cleopatra in one of their famous, yet comical love scenes. Servant Alta Stricklin is in the background.

AND SENIOR ASSEMBLIES....

The Valentine Assembly at Jefferson is considered the Senior Assembly. The script is written by seniors, and the participants are members of the Senior Class.

A scene from "Gunsmoke" finds dance hall girls Gwen Coleman and Jane Maddox talking with "Doc" Doriot and Roger Foutz, while Jim Rinehart tends the bar.

Richard "Peter Gunn" Stutts talks with Edie (Charlotte Thomas) while Bill Moore, also known as "Kookie" tries to snake him.

Grover Flint was co-captain of the Basketball Team, and was selected outstanding player from Jefferson. He was on the City-County Basketball team as well as the Western District squad and received honorable mention on the state squad.

Margaret King, a Junior, had the great honor of being invited to take part in the White House Conference on Youth. Margaret is active in Y-Teen work at Jefferson, and is on the Y-Teen Inter-Club Council.

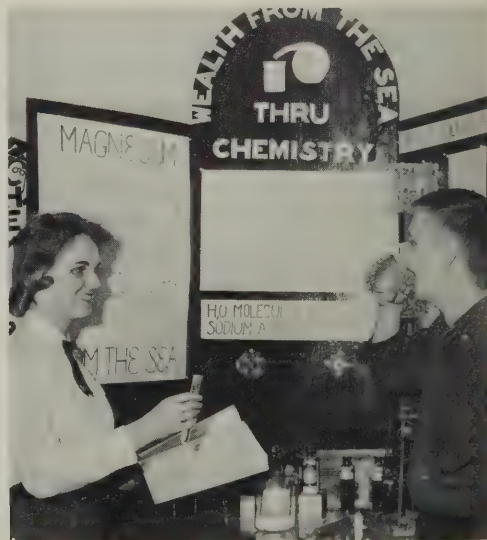

The Speaker's rostrum is a familiar place for Student Government President Bobby Young.

MAGICIANS GAINING DISTINCTION IN MANY FIELDS

Susan Meador has carried off speaking honors this year, winning competitions in "I Speak for Democracy", "My True Security", and Forensic contests.
